Make Money

Konshens

Don't care about the hype life though I'm hype life
Money on my mind yea cause thats my choice
On the same page then we go high five
Stand in my way then we gonna take life
Wanna make the money make the sacrifice
Seven times fall and the eighth time rise
Bitches gonna come when you wear that ice
When you're broke its easier to find that wife
Making my moves niggas watching me
Switching my flows making it harder to copy
I'm that one if you open your eyes
A lot has change cause I was too nice

I'm on the high way
Im on the highway in my own lane
I'm on the highway
Motherfuckers a lot has changed
