

pulling

Kontrust

Staring at this unknown object
From where has it come
Doesn't look explosive
But then maybe I am wrong

Such a strange feeling hovering in the air
I'm sensing change, feel the lightening resonating everywhere
Something tells me to beware

I gotta take a look
Gotta see what it's hiding

Pulling on the left side
Pulling on the right
Pulling on the wrong side
No clue about it
Pulling on the wrong side
Pulling at the wrong time

Pulling on the right
Pulling on the wrong side
No clue about it
Pulling on the wrong side
Pulling at the wrong time

I'm sensing change, feel the lightening resonating everywhere
Something tells me to beware

Why can't I just ignore this and walk away?
Why am I so implored to investigate this night and day
Something tells me, stay away

Pulling on the right
Pulling on the wrong side
No clue about it
Pulling on the wrong side
Pulling at the wrong time

Pulling on the right
Pulling on the wrong side
No clue about it
What am I doing?!
What am I doing?!
What is it all for?

Inside, frozen
Ice cold, and you know it
Inside, frozen

Pulling on the right
Pulling on the wrong side
No clue about it

Pulling on the wrong side
What am I doing?!

This time you are broken
Wrong side, and you know it
