Closer

The Kooks

Walking in London like I did as a child
I feel the cool air on the back of my neck
I am passing through the neighbourhood where I grew up
It doesn't feel like it used to Doesn't feel like it used to

Did I try to control you?
Yeah, I get lost in my own world
So I go through all the words I ever said
And it feels like the world is crashing down

Let's light up the city
Yeah, the buildings ain't so pretty
Let's have the time of our lives

We've never been closer than
We've never been closer than now
Closer than we ever dreamed of
We've never been closer than now

These are the days of excess
You want the moon 'cause it's been calling you

So let's light up the city
The buildings ain't so pretty
And we're having the time of our lives

We've never been closer than
We've never been closer than now
Closer than we ever dreamed of
We've never been closer than now

We've never been closer than
We've never been closer than now

Closer than we ever dreamed of
We've never been closer than now

Walking through London like I did as a child
Yeah, the spotlight can't keep up with us no more
I feel the cool air on the back of my neck
Yeah, it's you that can turn this world around
