

Echo Chamber

The Kooks

All I know is I love you still
The Queen of Sheba looking through the veil
A sunken treasure, wind in the sail
Only for a minute, don't break the spell
I lose myself travelling beside you
The look you hide, the dancer inside you
Make your magic girl, make your moments
Only for a minute, don't break the spell

Ah-ah, I don't wanna lose you now
Ah-ah, I don't wanna lose you now

Everybody got their head in the clouds
Telling us that we're moving too fast
The humming birds dance inside the leaves
Only for a minute, only for a minute
I lose myself in the wind and the air
I want it darker, I'm in the depths of despair
I lose myself every time you come near
Only for a minute, don't break the spell

Ah-ah, I don't wanna lose you now
Ah-ah, I don't wanna lose you now
I don't wanna lose you now
And I don't wanna lose you now
No, no

Lost in the morning
Bringing the dawn in
Life can be easy
Trust in the moment

Lost in the morning
Bringing the dawn in
Life can be easy
Trust in the moment
