Tea And Biscuits

The Kooks

I'd like to take you out for tea
And for biscuits
And show you the city
As I see her, how I need her

She is my beauty queen and my lover
Yes, I love her
She'll take me where I want to go

Out of my blue sky eyes
I see you for who you are
Out of my blue sky eyes
I see you for who you really are

I'd like to take her out for tea
I heard she likes biscuits
The lines on my hands
Are movin' now, yes, they're movin'

It lets us love to be in love
Oh I've got no love to give
Still we sit there and I'm high

Out of my blue sky eyes
I see her for who she is
Out of my blue sky eyes
I see her for who she really is
