

Without a Doubt

The Kooks

I was thinking of leaving
I was thinking of being someone else for a change
I was feeling bitter
There was always someone else to blame
But it's you that I come to
When everything is falling apart

Without a doubt
You're the best thing in my life
Without a doubt
You're the only thing keeping me right

I know I can lean on you
I know I can lean my head on your shoulder
I feel so incomplete
Can I get a little bit closer?
'Cause it's you that I come to
When everything is falling apart

Without a doubt
You're the best thing in my life
Without a doubt
You're the only thing keeping me right

Without a doubt
You're the best thing in my life
Without a doubt
You're the only one keeping me right
