

Raindrops

Kool & The Gang

Oh, oh-oh-oh, oh...
Down, down, down, yeah
Oh, oh, oh...

It's been a long time
Since I wandered 'round in the falling rain
For the drops tend to symbolize
Of how I went through life of love and pain

And you were the hurricane
That thunder-stormed all through my soul
Still I refute the past
Of how our love was worth more than gold

Though I tried to forget
The rainfall takes me back to you
And the downpour of my thoughts is only you
Oh, it's only you

Still I feel the raindrops
Falling from the sky
Falling, they're falling down
Now the raindrops, ooh-ooh-ooh...
Are falling from my eyes

And soon the falling rain
Sprinkles now have turned Into falling, falling hail
Oh, well, where could I have failed
I have failed

Though I tried to forget
The rainfall takes me back to you
And the downpour of my thoughts is only you

Oh, it's only you

Still I feel the raindrops
Falling from the sky
Falling, falling down
Now the raindrops
The raindrops keep falling down
Are falling from my eyes
Baby, babe, baby, I can't stand the rain

Still I feel the raindrops
On my window
Falling from the sky
And I feel so good
With you beside me, baby
Now the raindrops
Ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh...
Are falling from my eyes
Baby, can't stop the crying eyes

Oh, no, no, no, no, no
Oh-oh-oh...

Ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh...

Feel the raindrops
Falling from the sky
They are falling from the sky
Now the raindrops
Are falling from my eyes

Still I feel the raindrops
Hey-hey, yeah
Falling, falling, falling down
Down, down, down, down, down, down
Are falling from my eyes...
