

You Are the Meaning of Friend

Kool & The Gang

I remember seventeen
Young in love and chasing a dream
We said we would last forever
Life would offer no guarantees
Time would promise no certainties
The only thing for sure was you and me

Hey, baby
You are the meaning of friend
Hey, sugar
You've been true till the end

Years leave a path of history
Weaving stories of intimacy
Telling tales about you and me, together
We've been through some cloudy days
I can't tell you in enough ways
When things were gray, you gave me hope, for better

And love, love that you know
That you are living as the wind it calls
It's the very seed that fills life to us all

And you, you define the word
The word "giving", love without bounds
And time upon time, you never let me down

Hey, baby
You are the meaning of friend
Hey, sugar
You have been true till the end

Every change that I've been through
Has dragged you along too
I'm sure it wasn't easy for you
Here we are at the threshold of night
The intensity feels so right
The dream at seventeen came true alright, alright

Hey, baby
You are the meaning of friend
Hey, sugar
You've been true till the end

Hey, baby
You are the meaning of friend
Hey, sugar
You've been true till the end
