

Gravity of Discomfort

Korn

I've walked this world alone in prison by design
This broken bearer of shame is right here by my side

Higher than the highest goes
Darker than the blackest hole
Feel myself release my soul
Sweet relief, my body goes

Hate, dominate
Everything I got on my plate
Feel the weight of my pain
Crushing my heart, it's sure to break
I know it really wants to hurt me for sure
I know it set me up, it's death premature

I've tossed my fears aside, engaged in my denial
I'm lost inside this space I find to be so vile

Higher than the highest goes
Darker than the blackest hole
Feel myself release my soul
Sweet relief, my body goes

Hate, dominate
Everything I got on my plate
Feel the weight of my pain
Crushing my heart, it's sure to break
I know it really wants to hurt me for sure
I know it set me up, it's death premature

It won't go away
This time it's here to stay
Somehow I'll never be the same
Another day, another way
Another reasons for it to chip away
At everything I ever loved

Hate, dominate
Everything I got on my plate
Feel the weight of my pain
Crushing my heart, it's sure to break
I know it really wants to hurt me for sure
I know it set me up, it's death premature

Hate, dominate
Everything I got on my plate
Feel the weight of my pain
Crushing my heart, it's sure to break
I know it really wants to hurt me for sure
Hurt me for sure
