

I'm Hiding

Korn

Maybe I'm insane
walking on a wire
maybe I'm the same Nothing can take me higher tell me where to start think I'm at the end Right now, feeling pain
make it go away

Maybe I'm to blame
maybe I'm a Liar
maybe we're the same
nothing can stop the fire
I can't feel my heart
but I feel the shame
Nothing left to say
soon I'll fade away

These places all I ever
think about is lost in time
these faces taunting me I'm looking back
and they are mine

I'm hiding from the things they say
Doing time, then lead astray
Thinking back to times of yesterday
I could die

I'm trying to find a better way
but I'm trapped, can't get away
All I think is about yesterday
I could die

Maybe I'm insane
walking on a wire
maybe I'm the same
Nothing can take me higher
I can't feel my heart
but I feel the shame
soon I'll fade away

These places all I ever
think about is lost in time
these faces taunting me I'm looking back
and they are mine

I'm hiding from the things they say
Doing time, then lead astray
Thinking back to times of yesterday
I could die

I'm trying to find a better way
but I'm trapped, can't get away
All I think is about yesterday
I could fly. [2x]
