

Committed

Koryn Hawthorne

Something I never experienced
Always feeling like I'm wrapped in Your arms
Keep me close, keep me warm
I never knew in a million
You would risk it all to protect me from the storm
And make sure I come out unharmed

I know time and time again
I said I would get it right
Even when I crossed the line
You stayed by my side
And I never met a friend
Who would let me apologize over and over
Like it was my first time

That's why I'm committed
I'm committed
To Your will
And to Your way
I'm committed
So, so, so committed
I'ma serve You everyday
I'm committed to

Every morning is a blessing
You brought a new meaning to opening doors
I'm not talking chivalry
You really give me the best of Your love
You got me asking for it
No matter the cost, You can afford

I know time and time again
I said I would get it right
Even when I crossed the line
You stayed by my side
And I never met a friend
Who would let me apologize over and over
Like it was my first time

That's why I'm committed
I'm committed
To Your will
And to Your way
I'm committed
So, so, so committed
So committed
I'ma serve You everyday
I'ma serve You, I'ma serve You
I'm committed to

So committed
You-ooh
So, so, so
You, you, you
I'ma serve You
Everyday
