

it's your call, hear the answer, cross the hall as freedom dances as the smoke screen rises there they stand in their disguises you come blazing waving your arms and your attitude i don't notice you suzy may oh what is it coming to?

why is it down to you? you come blazing smell so sweet and taste so bitter struck with paint and doused in glitter this is for the back row you better stand up mister or you'll miss the show you come blazing waving your arms and your attitude

oh what is it coming to?

little girl in the mirror jesus loves a sinner put on your lipstick and get another quick fix you better be something you better keep on running or jump from a building you never really lived in so you want to be a superstar? yeah you come blazing

oh what is it coming to?
