I do this for y'all
Night after night I be giving my all
Give you my life and giving it raw
I just hope you'll pick me up when I fall
This for the people that be on my cloud
Bumping my music and bumping it loud Tweeting me saying "I been where you been
The darkness, the lows, I been there before
When your shit playing I don't feel alone"
I point at the speaker, like damn it he know
This ain't a gimmick this just how I'm living
But fuck where I been yo it's time for the glow
This one for Jada and Zion I'm sorry that I do not visit y'all more
This for that bum on that corner that got me that vodka when I was just 15 y ears old
This is for Marcus, this is for Zars
Yo I'm just happy we made it this far
Remember the talks of doing it big?
I know the haters is taking it hard
This for the nerds, off to the side
Don't got a name, don't get no shine
From one to another your moment is coming
Believe me 'cause right now I'm getting my time
This for my girl, holding it down
It used to be only her in the crowd
This one for mom, this one for dad
My biggest duty is making y'all proud
This one for Lizzie, frizzy and all
I swear she always be there when I call
This is for Derek and Maggie for making it happen
I'm giving ya'll half when I'm on This one for Dill, Anne, Danny and Danny
And patience ya'll fill up my soul

Now I got friends, right till the end
I don't be facing the world on my own
This one for Ace, that be the bro
Homie your presence be giving me hope
This one for Brady, Trav, Jay, Dax
Thank you for helping me grow
This one for Vern
Remember to show up and Ruckus said fuck it and drove us to Jers'
Always was down for the cause
We had our battles but you by my side for the war
If it wasn't for y'all, where would I be?
We ain't got much, but this all I need
So when I be up
I'm dedicating the show to the people with five dollar seats, unh

One time for the front row
