

The Good (Interlude)

KOTA The Friend

I love that you're such a great dad to our kids That's my favorite part, that's one of my favorite things about you
I feel like you're so emotionally in tune and the kids definitely feel so safe, I mean, you see how Nori gets so excited with you
So I think that's something, no, not again
You gotta keep going Uh, so I fell for taking a shot, uh My second thing is, uh, I love how creative you are and how passionate you are in your work
It constantly inspires me all the time
Every day you just have a different idea and it's just great I mean, you came up with a children's book in an hour when you were with Nori
And it was so good, I still think you should do something about that Uh, but no, honestly, you teach me so much, so that's a good something
