

Board Game

Koven.

Take it off, the feeling's gone
We land at this point again
First, we played, and now we've lost
Like I never wanted anything

Watching as the colors blend
But it still won't meet an end
Forget everyone we ever knew then
'Cause we are who we are

Fighting for a different right
But we still can't see the light
Wishing we could've known this sooner
'Cause we are who we are

'Cause we are who we are
'Cause we are who we are

(We are who we are-)

'Cause we are who we are
'Cause we are who we are
'Cause we are who we are
