

Catharsis X

Koven.

When we look back into the sun
This ethereal light that we left will not burn out
Wild to where we run
In the time that we had it was worth it to know that

This is not the end
It's just the part of the puzzle the piece found its way to
This is not the end
It's just the split in the path where your feet take a new train
1

This is not the end

Catch your breath and pull your lifeline
Nowhere left to fall
Find your new way just in time

This is not the end
It's just the part of the puzzle the piece found its way to
This is not the end
It's just the split in the path where your feet take a new train
1

Couldn't see from your wildest heights
Anticipating the fear that you thought you'd abandoned
Questioning ourselves
But the journey we take wasn't meant to be easy

This is not the end
This is not the end
This is not the end
This is not the end
