

Collecting Thoughts

Koven.

How does this end?
Collecting up my thoughts
I'm ready to pretend
How will my head
Get back to thinking straight again?

But I can't see an out
And I don't mean to put all my doubt
On you, when I know you're struggling too
Can you carry the weight?
Can you carry the weight?

Can you carry the weight of my world?
Can you carry the weight of my world?
Can you carry the weight of my world?
Can you carry the weight, carry the weight of my world?

Can you carry the weight?
Can you carry the weight?

How does this end?
Collecting up my thoughts
I'm ready to pretend
How will my head
Get back to thinking straight again?

But I can't see an out
And I don't mean to put all my doubt
On you, when I know you're struggling too
Can you carry the weight?
Can you carry the weight of my world?

Can you carry the weight?

Can you carry the weight?
Can you carry the weight?
