

Do You

Koven.

Do you, do you, do you love
Do you, do you love me, ohhh
Do you, do you, do you love
Do you, do you love me, ohhh
Do you, do you, do you love
Do you, do you love me, ohhh

Do you, do you, do you love
Do you, do you love me, ohhh
Do you, do you, do you love
Do you, do you love me, ohhh
Do you, do you, do you love
Do you, do you love me, ohhh

It's your awful night
Try to close and see
And we're just broken
Like a minor symphony

I'm going to ask you for your heart
Try and let it be the fault within our stars
And if we fall back where we broke
We'll be okay
We'll be okay

(Do you love me)
We'll be okay
(Do you love me)
We'll be okay
(Do you love me)
Oh without it, we'll love again
We'll love again
Oh without it, we'll love again
We'll love again
Love again

We'll be okay
Oh without it, we'll love again
We'll love again
We'll love again
Oh without it, we'll love again
We'll love again
We'll love again
We'll love again
