

Era

Koven.

Nobody sees it
We're in the deep end
Too lazy to
Turn a blind eye
Questions are recent
Emotions are fleeting
Who's gonna save
Our souls tonight?

It's the same old fight
We never see the darkness
And the light
So easy when you're
Blind to it
'Cause ignorance is bliss
Just wanna close
My eyes to it

As we stand
Someone falls
No one was meant
To have it all
In the cracks
Between the walls
We were brave
And we were warm

Oh oh, oh oh, oh
Hah oh, oh

We were in this together
But somehow fared better
And we can't imagine
How the others are living
So we cope
By pretending that it's not
Really happening
Close our eyes
Shut our mouths
As we watch the world burn

As we stand
Someone falls
No one was meant
To have it all
In the cracks
Between the walls
We were brave
And we were warm

Woah oh, oh oh, oh oh oh
Hah oh, oh oh oh oh
(By pretending that it's not)
Oh oh, oh oh, oh oh oh
(Really happening)
(Close our eyes)
(Shut our mouths)

(As we watch the world burn)
Oh yeah

We were in this together
But somehow fared better
And we can't imagine
So we cope
By pretending that it's not
Really happening
Close our eyes
Shut our mouths
