

Everything

Koven.

I see the lives you've haunted
They're coming up ahead
So you left this path wide open
So you could come instead

Save your soul right now
Until the truth comes out
And I gave you everything
And I gave you everything
Save your soul right now
And left alone, cried out
I gave you everything
And I gave you everything

The things we kept unnoted
Will come to light inside
You keep your fears unspoken
And then you change your side
So let your soul out now
And place your hand in mine
In mine

Save your soul right now
Until the truth comes out
And I gave you everything
And I gave you everything
Save your soul right now
And left alone, cried out
I gave you everything
And I gave you everything

Save your soul right now
Until the truth comes out
And I gave you everything
And I gave you everything
Save your soul right now
And left alone, cried out
I gave you everything
And I gave you everything

And I gave you everything
And I gave you everything
And I gave you everything
And I gave you everything
And I gave you everything
And I gave you everything
And I gave you everything
And I gave you everything
And I gave you everything
