

Telling Me

Koven.

White lies that you said before you left home
'Cause you didn't really mean it
No lines, you have to cross them as we fall
Telling me I have to go

Telling me I have to go
Telling me I have to go
Telling me I have to go

Telling me I have to go

White lies that you said before you left home
'Cause you didn't really mean it
No lines, you have to cross them as we fall
Telling me I have to go

Telling me I have to go
Telling me I have to go
Telling me I have to go

Telling me I have to go

White lies that you said before you left home
'Cause you didn't really mean it
No lines, you have to cross them as we fall
Telling me I have to go

Telling me I have to go
Telling me I have to go
Telling me I have to go

Telling me I have to go

Telling me I have to go

Telling me I have to go

White lies that you said before you left home
'Cause you didn't really mean it
No lines, you have to cross them as we fall
Telling me I have to go

Telling me I have to go
Telling me I have to go
Telling me I have to go
