

Turning Point

Koven.

I've been looking
For a one-way ticket
To a new place
Where I belong
Leaves are turnin'
In the old dirt
Restin' and on old terms
Come undone

So raise me up (Raise me up)
Hold me down (Hold me down)
This is the turning point
So come alive (Come alive)
And feel the fire (And feel the fire)
This is the turning point

My mind's shattered
And collated
So manipulated
So custom
To be
Everything now we see
Caught up by a [?]
We're now done

So raise me up (Raise me up)
Hold me down (Hold me down)
This is the turning point
So come alive (Come alive)
And feel the fire (And feel the fire)
This is the turning point

So raise me up (Raise me up)
Hold me down (Hold me down)
This is the turning point
So come alive (Come alive)
And feel the fire (And feel the fire)
This is the turning point
