

Worlds Collide

Koven.

No sleep, no fear
Different point of view
It's here, it's now
What we wanna do
Don't have all the answers
But we don't care (care)

I thought the answer was in front of me
But it was just a dream
And all the failing made me see
I thought I had to choose another way
You can't predict your fate
It's just how it's meant to be

This
This is where our worlds collide
This is where we come alive
This is where we realize
This is where we realize
It's all that matters now

It's all that matters now
It's all that matters now
It's all that matters now
It's all that matters now

(It's all that)
(It's all that)
(It's all that)
It's all that matters now

This
This is where our worlds collide
This is where we come alive
This is where we realize
This is where we realize
(That's all that matters now)

No sleep, no fear
Different point of view
It's here, it's now
What we want to do
Don't have all the answers
But we don't care (care)

I thought the answer was in front of me
But it was just a dream

This is where we realize
This is where we realize

It's all that matters now
It's all that matters now
It's all that matters now
