

You Me And Gravity

Koven.

Fall into your mind
Waiting just to feel alive
Another change
Cutting to the thoughts within
The clarity is wearing thin
Another time to treat this

Holding onto what we find
We don't want to lose this fight
You, me, and gravity
(And gravity, and gravity)

You, me, and gravity
You, me, and gravity
You, me, and gravity

Strong enough to reach the line
Are we on the final time
Forgive our lies
Bought caution by the hopes we had
Thinking we could make it there
Another chance to change this

Holding onto what we find
We don't want to lose this fight
You, me, and gravity
(And gravity, and gravity)
Brave enough to give it all
Knowing that the faint will fall
You, me, and gravity (and gravity)

You, me, and gravity
You, me, and gravity
(And gravity)
You, me, and gravity
You, me, and gravity

You, me, and gravity
You, me, and gravity
You, me, and gravity
