

Your Pain

Koven.

Your pain
Your pain

It's been coming for a while
But I push it back into my mind
There's a darkness in my head
Try to shake it but it has its time

'Cause I know
Where I am
Can't keep holding to what isn't there
And my words
Not enough
Can't keep holding to what isn't there

Your pain
Can't keep holding to what isn't there
Your
Your
Your
Your
Your pain
Can't keep holding to what isn't there

'Cause I know
Where I am
Can't keep holding to what isn't there
And my words
Not enough
Can't keep holding to what isn't there

Your pain
Your pain
Can't keep holding to what isn't there
What isn't there, what isn't there
Can't keep holding to what isn't there
