

Your Word

Koven.

You say it's nothing
Behind your eyes, there's something more
You tell me, believe you
Behind your eyes the truth is raw

You pleaded not guilty
Behind your eyes you confess
You say your conscience is clean but
Behind your eyes it seems a mess

Did they fall into line
And believe what you lied?
I'm not taking your word for it
Not taking your word for it
'Cause you seem amazed
That I question your ways
I'm not taking your word for it
Not taking your word for it

Misguided, deluded
Sorry that I'm not like the rest
It's just too easy to lose this
Sincerely hope you all the best

Believed how I see now
My time is better off elsewhere
Believed you, now see through
There was no reason left to care

Did they fall into line
And believe what you lied?
I'm not taking your word for it
Not taking your word for it
'Cause you seem amazed
That I question your ways
I'm not taking your word for it
Not taking your word for it

Did they fall into line
And believe what you lied?
I'm not taking your word for it
Not taking your word for it
'Cause you seem amazed
That I question your ways
I'm not taking your word for it
Not taking your word
