

Diamond One

Koyo

Few live
Don't you know wanna live like we do
I know you do
Be freed
From bottle episodic redos
Don't let this world kick you around

My mid-twenties planting fear and doubt
If we take it in stride we can figure it out
And commit to every hope you could possibly conceive
This life's long so enjoy yourself
Not slaving away for another man's clout
I'd rather die than leave a single corner of this unseen, untur-ned, unheard
Sacrificial pact, it's our curse

Devolving life's calling
Funerals proceeding every day, even in the rain
I'm finding this timing's unapologetic, testing me
Do I concede?

Time lost
Days go on and on and on without me
This living on repeat
It can't be finality