

Showroom Dummies

Kraftwerk

We are standing here
Exposing ourselves

We are showroom dummies
We are showroom dummies

We're being watched and we feel our pulse

We are showroom dummies
We are showroom dummies

We look around and change our pose

We are showroom dummies
We are showroom dummies

We start to move
And we break the glass

We are showroom dummies
We are showroom dummies

We step out
And take a walk through the city

We are showroom dummies
We are showroom dummies

We go into a club
And there we start to dance

We are showroom dummies
We are showroom dummies
We are showroom dummies
