Slippin'
You're too high, you're too high, you're too high
You slippin'
You're too high, you're too high, you're too high
You slippin'
You're too high, you're too high, you're too high (Y'all too high for me)
You slippin'
You're too high, you're too high, you're too high (You so high)
You slippin'
You're too high, you're too high, you're too high (Y'all too high for me)
You slippin'
You're too high, you're too high, you're too high (You so high)
You slippin'
You're too high, you're too high, you're too high
You slippin'

You need to get up, get out, and get somethin'
Don't spend all your time tryna get high
You need to be hustlin' on your grind, on your job
It's still thug mentality, gettin' mine, livin' hard
Everybody too high to realize what's goin' on around 'em
Minds on they iPhone, that's the problem
Nobody talkin' or havin' conversations, they bloggin'
Weapons of mass distraction so distractin'
Artificial, all them nigga's plastic
If y'all official, I've officially had it
The good and the bad where the bad turn good
The rap turned trap and the lost manhood
So many distorted views on how a man should be a man, who to be a man
So loved the world until I figured out it didn't love me back
So now I'm like fuck the world (Fuck 'em)
(Fuck 'em)
But it's easier said than done
'Cause once the propoganda get in your head, you're done
Now, you can't really escape it, you're scared to run
I see you stumblin' and trippin', 'bout to slip on that banana peel

Slippin'
You're too high, you're too high, you're too high
You slippin'
You're too high, you're too high, you're too high
You slippin'
You're too high, you're too high, you're too high
You slippin'
You're too high, you're too high, you're too high (Y'all too high for me)
You slippin'
You're too high, you're too high, you're too high (You so high)
You slippin'
You're too high, you're too high, you're too high (Y'all too high for me)
You slippin'
You're too high, you're too high, you're too high (You so high)
You slippin'
You're too high, you're too high, you're too high
You slippin'

Uh, see they put us in a place to fix
We call it hell but I don't, I'm just livin' it out

Told y'all, showed y'all, I ain't givin' 'em shit
So if they ask did it touch, nah, I'm just now feelin' 'em out
'Cause in the drought we thirsty, my [?] is dry
Lungs is high from cocaine residue
And step to who?
Mess with you and mess with few
Your head down, good times, blessin' you
Uh, better quit bein' victims
Slip or better days, I'ma change tryna get some
Will I win, will I lose, all to see a Nine
It's real talk, better hit 'em when I pitch 'em
Do you hear the tone? See me in my zone
But you won't, I ain't really feelin' none of that
I stayed ahead while they lay in bed
That bread don't wake when you dead, ain't no comin' back
Ayy, ayy, full-time, full [?] in your jacket, this life ain't for everybody
Little Lean, Codeine, but it ain't you
Lookin' like Future, you ain't foolin' nobody
Whole body, go Hansen, no Gohan
I ain't tryna hide no feelings, I show mine
Did it my way, Frank in this bitch
That fame [?] quick, just pay it, don't slip
Switch up seats in this diesel Ford
Kick doors down when them folks came for you
Remember? Probably don't, you be way too high
Your circle weak, your homeboy the same as you

Slippin'
You're too high, you're too high, you're too high
You slippin'
You're too high, you're too high, you're too high
You slippin'
You're too high, you're too high, you're too high
You slippin'
You're too high, you're too high, you're too high (Y'all too high for me)
You slippin'
You're too high, you're too high, you're too high (You so high)
You slippin'
You're too high, you're too high, you're too high (Y'all too high for me)
You slippin'
You're too high, you're too high, you're too high (You so high)
You slippin'
You're too high, you're too high, you're too high
You slippin'
