

Cold

KREAM

A victimless crime, a sign of the times
I don't wanna speak, just take control
I say that I'm fine, you know it's a lie
If I wouldn't see, then say so

Oh, oh
How can I let you go? Oh
You touch me then I want more, oh
You know you're my weakness
I need that fire, but you leave me cold, oh

Ah, ah-ah, cold, oh
Ah, ah-ah, you leave me cold, oh
Ah-ah-ah
I need that fire, but you leave me cold
But you leave me cold
I need that fire, but you leave me cold

I need you, I need you, so don't leave me cold
I need you, I need you, so don't leave me cold
I need you, I need you, so don't leave me cold
I need that fire, but you leave me cold

A victimless crime, a sign of the times
I don't wanna speak, just take control
I say that I'm fine, you know it's a lie
If I wouldn't see, then say so

Oh, oh
How can I let you go? Oh
You touch me then I want more, oh
You know you're my weakness
I need that fire, but you leave me cold, oh

Ah, ah-ah, cold, oh
Ah, ah-ah, you leave me cold, oh
Ah-ah-ah
I need that fire, but you leave me cold
But you leave me cold
I need that fire, but you leave me cold

I need you, I need you, so don't leave me cold
I need you, I need you, so don't leave me cold
I need you, I need you, so don't leave me cold
I need that fire, but you leave me cold
