

Know This Love

KREAM

Back to back and bone to bone
Arms so tight you can't let go
Let go
Fuel to fire and fire to smoke
Your hands were never mine to hold
I know I know

But I don't mind looking at you
You got your friends and I've got mine too
Know this love ain't enough for us two
Still no one is dancing is like you
Stealing the show without even knowing you do
This love had enough of us two

Know
You gotta know that
My skin is new but shaded
Like a tattoo you changed it
Know
You gotta know that
When we were lost I made it
But in a million strangers

Nobody
Nobody
Nobody's like you
Nobody
Nobody
Nobody's like you

I don't mind looking at you
You got your friends and I've got mine too
Know this love ain't enough for us two
Still no one is dancing is like you
Stealing the show without evening knowing you do
This love had enough of us two

Know
You gotta know that
My skin is new but shaded
Like a tattoo you changed it
Know
You gotta know that
When we were lost I made it
But in a million strangers

Nobody
Nobody
Nobody's like you
Nobody
Nobody
Nobody's like you
