

Cry War

Kreator

All night you can feel

all the blood it runs dying from the death of the machine gun crying on a field without mercy death in your eyes you have never seen tormentor all the priests on earth quartet all the enemies tonight nail all their corpses to the cross choose your dirty laughing from your fate

flashlight is taking all the flash from your face torture feels like the fastest black race dying everyday it is the same laughing about the corpses in this game
