

Earth Under The Sword

Kreator

I am the titan, destroyer of destroyers
Forever I'll hunt them, soon the flames assault the thrones
Chaos, destruction, inhumane societies
Breed hate, total hate
Now see me coming, engage upon my nemesis
Intent, the torture, I am the cure for its disease
Their manifesto is domination of the poor
Through hate, total hate

I have come to dethrone the emperors
I have come to crush them all
I will shed once more your blood
On earth under the sword
I have come to evoke those of the past
I have come to unite them all
I am the apostle of fate
Rule the earth under the sword
Forever night will fall
On earth under the sword

I am the conscience that channels your reality
A demon, you're facing with absolute brutality
Awake the credo, I that sleeps within the minds of man
Through hate, total hate
You are the victim, casualty of system failure
I am immortal my ghost endured centuries
Embrace the bringer of life to this necropolis
Through hate, total hate

I have come to dethrone the emperors
I have come to crush them all
I am the apostle of fate
Rule the earth under the sword
Forever night will fall
On earth under the sword

I have come to dethrone the emperors
I have come to crush them all
I will shed once more your blood
On earth under the sword
I have come to evoke those of the past
I have come to unite them all
I am the apostle of fate
Rule the earth under the sword
Forever night will fall
On earth under the sword

Under the sword!
