

I Love the Lie

Kree Harrison

I miss hearing you say "I love you"
Even when you didn't mean it
I love the lie, I love the lie
I miss believing you were sorry
Every time you brought me roses
I love the lie, I love the lie

Sweet words dripping from your lips like honey
Shining like gold on your silver tongue
Feels like a pocket full of easy money
Believing in a rainy day sun

'Cause I love the lie, I love the lie
I love the lie, I love the lie

I miss being the thing you needed
When you were feeling lonely
I love the lie, I love the lie
I miss hearing you say goodbye
Said you always hated leaving
I love the lie, I love the lie

Sweet words dripping from your lips like honey
Shining like gold on your silver tongue
Feels like a pocket full of easy money
Believing in a rainy day sun

I love the lie, I love the lie
I love the lie, I love the lie

I miss hearing you say "I love you"
Even when you didn't mean it
I love the lie, I love the lie

Sweet words dripping from your lips like honey
Shining like gold on your silver tongue
Feels like a pocket full of easy money
Believing in a rainy day sun

I love the lie, I love the lie
I love the lie, I love the lie
I love the lie, I love the lie
I love the lie, I love the lie
