

I've Got Time

Kree Harrison

I've got time, time for killing
If you're willing
Baby, if you're feeling
Feeling tired
Oh, of the same old, same old
Baby, I know what you mean

I don't mind waiting on ya
But I can tell you, no there ain't no
There ain't no need

I've got time for holding
Sweet talking whatever you wanna do
Yeah, I've got time for loving you

I've got hours, hours and hours and hours
Yeah, we can make them ours
You've got that smile
Yeah it stops me
Oh, it stops me right in my tracks
Give me more of that

If you wanna hide away with me
Let's shut the world out
Cause you know, you know I'm free

I've got time for holding
Sweet talking whatever you, you wanna do
Yeah, I've got time for loving you

Come on baby

Come on and hide away with me
Let's shut the world out
Cause you know, you know I'm free

I've got time for holding
Sweet talking whatever you wanna do
Yeah, I've got time for loving you
