If I ever win a Grammy nigga
Twenty goons on the stage

Any fools on a race
When I bossed down the Rollie
Plenty jewels you wanna change
When are you gonna change?
All of you on a late night
When are you gonna stay?
Where are you? I'm in LA
Same niggas want a chase
Same niggas on your case (Yeah)
But you just want something different for a change

I had to upgrade lil' mama
She fucking with them same ass niggas
Shit keep change and the money keep coming in the way y'all niggas
She wants to leave but can't get it with none of you same ass niggas

But she know that I'm famous, yeah
Triple A on your pass
SnapChat vids with a glass
You see that friend you was last with
I don't like her, she's a cross (Behave)
Grabbing on your hips

Your friends don't tag you in the pics
All them times I could've had you in a twist
But you think I'm tryna add you to the list (Yeah, yeah, yeah)
Always got designers on
So sexy with sliders on
Don't know where my light is gone
But you know what my mind is on, yeah

I had to upgrade lil' mama
