

In The Water

Krewella

This body is a cage, it cannot hold the rage
Everything's ablaze but nobody's to blame
This body is a cage, it cannot hold the rage
Skin and DNA remember everything
This body is a cage, it cannot hold the rage
I can smell a saint, who's forgotten how to pray
This body is a cage, it cannot hold the rage
We're nothing but insane

I am not angel
But your secret's safe
But your secret's safe
I am not angel
But your secret's safe
But your secret's safe
And darling, I don't need you
But your secret's safe
But your secret's safe with me
The stars above are watching us, the body never lies

This body is a maze, can you find the way?
Tunnel vision gaze, tryna feed a flame
This body is a maze, can you find the way?
I'm wired in your brain, even when I fade
This body is a maze, can you find the way?
What is it you crave when there's nothing left to gain?
This body is a maze, can you find the way?
While you're circling the drain?

We might only have this moment
But as long as you remember me
But as long as you remember me
I found peace inside this ocean
So devour me before I leave
Just as long as you remember me
'Cause something's in the water
Singing like a lover
Slipping down a landslide
I can feel your world turn
'Cause something's in the water
Singing like a lover
Slipping down a landslide
I can feel your world turn

We might only have this moment
But as long as you remember me
But as long as you remember me
I found peace inside this ocean
So devour me before I leave
Just as long as you remember me
'Cause something's in the water
Singing like a lover
Slipping down a landslide
I can feel your world turn
'Cause something's in the water
Singing like a lover
Slipping down a landslide

I can feel your world turn
