

War Forever

Krewella

The way that your words sting is really poetic
Like there's a knife through your chest, but I get it
I do, I do, I do (I do, I do)
I hate to admit, but I fear I'm two-headed
I wait for the storm, but it hits and I run for the moon
Ooh, we might be doomed

I put you on ice
It's the silence that bites
It's another cold night
If we're deep in our pride
Can we switch it, flip our sides
No, we don't have nine lives
'Cause it's, it's do or die now, right now, right now

Oh, are we out of our minds? Nobody wins in this fight
No, I don't wanna be at war forever
Oh, if you're reading my mind, I see a dove in the sky
White flag - put it up, surrender
Running, running, running, running, running outta time
We're running, running, running, running cycles, you and I
Oh, are we out of our minds? Nobody wins in this fight
No, I don't wanna be at war forever

Oh, are we out of our
Oh-oh, are we out of our
Oh, are we out of our
Oh-oh, are we out of our
Minds, minds, mi-mi-mi-
Minds, minds, mi-mi-mi-
Minds, minds, mi-mi-mi-
Cycles, you and I
Oh, are we out of our
Oh-oh, are we out of our
Oh, are we out of our
Oh-oh, are we out of our
Minds, minds, mi-mi-mi-
Minds, minds, mi-mi-mi-
Minds, minds, mi-mi-mi-
Cycles, you and I

Tell me where do you go when you start to see red?
And your eyes lose the sun, I think I taste the end
Oh, I do, I do, I do (I do, I do)
Ooh (I do, I do)
And I wanna be strong, but it wavers on cruel
'Cause how can I win if I'm always gon' feel like the fool?
Ooh, I might be doomed

I put you on ice
It's the silence that bites
It's another cold night
If we're deep in our pride
Can we switch it, flip our sides
No, we don't have nine lives
'Cause it's, it's do or die now, right now, right now

Oh, are we out of our minds? Nobody wins in this fight
No, I don't wanna be at war forever
Oh, if you're reading my mind, I see a dove in the sky
White flag - put it up, surrender
Running, running, running, running, running outta time
We're running, running, running, running cycles, you and I
Oh, are we out of our minds? Nobody wins in this fight
No, I don't wanna be at war forever
Oh, are we out of our minds? Nobody wins in this fight
