

In The Water

Krezip

I'm in the water
Going under
I wanna lose myself again
I'm falling backwards
Will you catch me?
I wanna lose myself again

Do you believe
That people can change
Even someone as broken as me?
I took my heart from my sleeve

And what do you see
Looking at me
Do you think I'll be braver than this?
And put my heart back on my sleeve

Arms open wide
I'll close my eyes
And leave my fears behind

I'm in the water
Going under
I wanna lose myself again
I'm falling backwards
Will you catch me?
I wanna lose myself again

Oh I wanna lose myself
Lose myself
Lose myself again
Oh I wanna lose myself
Lose myself
Lose myself again

All I know
Is losing control
Means that everything might break and fall
And I end up alone

I'm in the water
Going under
I wanna lose myself again
I'm falling backwards
Will you catch me?
I wanna lose myself again

Oh I wanna lose myself
Lose myself
Lose myself again
Oh I wanna lose myself
Lose myself
Lose myself again

I've been waiting for way too long
I'm falling backwards into your arms
I've been waiting for way too long

I'm falling into your arms
I've been waiting for way too long
Now I'm falling into your arms

I'm in the water
Going under

Oh I wanna lose myself
Lose myself
Lose myself again
Oh I wanna lose myself
Lose myself
Lose myself again
