

Let Me Go Home

Krezip

I close my eyes
My weary mind
Wanders off into the night
My hands are cold
My feet are tired

Let me go home
Let me go home

I confess
My trouble to the dark
My deepest fears hide with stars
Now somewhere roams
My secret heart

Let me go home
Let me go home

Somewhere there's light
So I can no longer hide
Somewhere I'm brave
Wipe the tears from my face
Somewhere there's faith
In whatever comes my way
Oh my way

So let me go home
Let me go home
Oh let me go home
Let me go home
