

Running From

Krezip

I found out long ago
Nothing is set in stone
But my rock is a steady one

I love your heart of gold
And what it is beating for
All the love it is beating for

But don't look back at a setting sun
You've chosen well
You're my lucky charm
So soft
Sunday born
You've chosen well
You're my lucky charm
You know

Don't lose yourself
Don't fight it
Why are we running from silence?
What are we running from?
Don't question time
Don't fight it
Why are we running from silence?
What are we running from?

Cause all we're made of
All we're made of
Is of love

We're kind of halfway there
We are brave and scared
Still fresh as the morning air

But don't look back at a setting sun
You've chosen well
You're my lucky charm
So soft
Sunday born
You've chosen well
You're my lucky charm
You know

Don't lose yourself
Don't fight it
Why are we running from silence?
What are we running from?
Don't question time
Don't fight it
Why are we running from silence?
What are we running from?

Cause all we're made of
All we're made of
Is of love

Lights will burn brighter

Trouble will feel lighter
So it goes
So it goes
Lights will burn brighter
Trouble will feel lighter
We will know

That all we're made of
All we're made of
Is of love

Why are we running from silence?
What are we running from?
Don't lose yourself don't fight it
Why are we running from silence?
What are we running from?

Cause all we're made of
All we're made of
Is of love
All we're made of
All we're made of
Is of love
