

Why Do I

Krezip

I was shocked because I'm not so tough as tough
As I had thought that I would be
I see that I don't get control (but I know now)
I'll shut you out, wiser, again, no
Hope that I will not be bored alone

Nothing less than what I think about myself is What you'll see in me
I know that I'll get full control
I'll shut you out, wiser, again
Hope that I will not be bored alone

You, everything you say is true
Totally rely on you, I swear I'd give
Everything I have to you
Totally belong to you, you know
You are nothing more than me
But you mean too much to me
I swear
Why do I belong to you

Weak as I feel now is what I'll be if I just let it slip away
I see that I get full control (but I know now)
I'll shut you out, wiser, again
Hope that I will not be bored alone

You, everything you say is true
Totally rely on you, I swear I'd give
Everything I have to you
Totally belong to you, you know
You are nothing more than me
But you mean too much to me
I swear

Why do I belong to you, no
Why do I belong to you

If I will get one kiss before you go
And I don't understand and I will never know
'Cause I will take this chance to be the strongest again

'Cause you, everything you say is true
Totally rely on you, I swear
I'd give, everything I have to you
Totally belong to you, you know
You are nothing more than me
But you mean too much to me
I swear
I swear
I swear
I swear

Why do I belong to you
