

Why Falling

Krezip

I can see it's going down, it's going down again
Your face, it is destroyed by mess that you bought
You didn't tell me that you wanted to be like this, I never noticed

Guys are drawing on you when they are drunk, you never told me

Why are you falling, deeper and deeper, in a hole
Why are you falling, deeper and deeper, deeper in a hole

Your hands are holding mine but someone's kicking them
My mouth is telling you what you shouldn't do
You didn't tell me that you wanted to be like this, I never noticed

Guys are drawing on you when they are drunk, you never told me

Why are you falling, deeper and deeper, in a hole
Why are you falling, deeper and deeper, deeper in a hole

You're gone with the wind, gone with the wind you are
You're gone with the wind, gone with the wind you are
You didn't tell me that you wanted to be like this, I never noticed

Guys are drawing on you when they are drunk, you never told me

Why are you falling, deeper and deeper, in a hole
Why are you falling, deeper and deeper, deeper in a hole
Deeper in a hole
Deeper... in a hole
