

Nightmare

Kris Lawrence

Baby, baby, baby
I know you gotta be the best
Thing for me lady
No, I never meant to make you cry
But I apologize for every single lie
Cuz sometimes, I let my
I let my pride get the best of me
But this time, I know I was wrong
I know you gotta be the best

So whatever I gotta do to get you back
Baby, I'll do
Just tell me what it is
And baby, I promise I'll do it for you

I'd rather be asleep and dream about you
Than awake and be without you
I'd rather sleep and daydream
Than to be without my baby

Without you, you, you, oh oh
Without you
I'm so scared
It's like living in a nightmare

So if were breaking up
Don't wake me up
Just let me sleep
Cuz in my dreams we were just making love
We were so happy
So how do we go
From utopia to this tragedy
Please please, don't wake me up
If this nightmare is really happening

Oh baby, there is nothing cool about being alone
Baby, I hate waking up everyday
When I know you're gone

I'd rather be asleep and dream about you
Than awake and be without you
I'd rather sleep and daydream
Than to be without my baby

Without you, you, you, oh oh
Without you
I'm so scared
It's like living in a nightmare
