

Hope

Kristene DiMarco

There is a song I will sing that angels only dream of singing
A song that moves the heart of God
That only the redeemed can sing

Its the song of the storm ceasing
The song of the dawn breaking
The song of the undefeated soul

Coming forth from the grave
It's the song of the last tear falling
The song of my rescue coming
The song of the undefeated Lover
Coming forth from the fire
