

Limitless

Kristene DiMarco

Waking up to questions
I'm faced with a decision
Who am I gonna believe today?

It's day 26 of brokenheartedness and I
Choose to believe that rescue is on His way

I believe that You're limitless
I know that You're boundless, Lord
If it feels like I've reached the end
I won't believe it

One mountain in front of me
Another behind me
Sometimes learning is a painful thing

It's day 35 of sorting out what's inside
I choose to believe that rescue is on its way

Give me a love that parts the seas
Give me a love that throws no stones
Give me a love that walks over the water
Give me the love of Jesus
Give me the love of Jesus
