

Redemption

Kristene DiMarco

The darker the night
The brighter the day
The fiercer the fight
The stronger the faith
So I place my hope in You

The deeper the sin
The stronger the blood
The more to forgive
The more reason to love
So I place my trust in You

In Your ways, oh God
Redemption is so much better than perfection
In Your ways, oh God
Over and over You prove You're so faithful
Over and over You prove Yourself a Redeemer

The darker the night
The brighter the day
The fiercer the fight
The stronger the faith
So I place my hope in You

In Your ways, oh God
Redemption is so much better than perfection
In Your ways, oh God
Redemption is so much better than perfection
In Your ways, oh God
Over and over You prove You're so faithful
Over and over You prove Yourself a Redeemer

In Your ways I don't hex
Redemption is so much better than perfection
So I place all my hope in You

Over and over, over and over, over and over
You prove You're so faithful
Over and over, over and over, over and over
You prove Yourself a Redeemer

The darker the night
The brighter the day
The fiercer the fight
The stronger the faith
The deeper the sin
The stronger the blood
The more to forgive
