

Gasoline

Kristian Bush

Gasoline

You know it when you smell it
There's a story that it's tellin'
About seventeen

And gasoline

Dream them summertime dimes that always leave you needin' more
Workin' hard and mowin' yards to feed that Ford
That stayed thirsty for
Gasoline

It took you down a road with her you've never been
Not knowin' you can never turn around again
As Heaven watched a couple kids just givin' in Runnin' out of innocence

And gasoline

Could turn a picture perfect past to ash that just blows away
Burn a pile of smiles faster than you can say
"Yesterday"

Gasoline

It can get you out of a town that don't need you no more
Or drive you right to what you never knew you were lookin' for
To find a dream
Gasoline

There's a fire that's burnin' hot and wild and fast
It's been waitin' all this time to finally catch
It's amazin', the blaze like you've never seen
When you fall in love
And you throw on that
Gasoline

Gasoline

You know it when you smell it
There's a story it keeps tellin'
About seventeen
Gasoline
