

If You Gotta Go Now

Kristian Bush

Did you hear a word I said
Why am I the only one who makes the bed
Why you gotta play that guitar so damn loud
Are you really gonna wear those pants and
When you ever gonna take me dancin'
You know I'm gonna leave if we can't work this out

If you gotta go now
I guess you better go now
For the first time you've got nothin' left to say
I'll get through it somehow
Even though it's dark out
Tomorrow's gonna be a better day

Tell me when you're gonna shave your face and
I think I might redecorate this place
I'm gonna need some more closet space for sure
When you're gonna hang those picture frames and
One time can't you skip the game
If you don't change boy, I'm headin' out the door

If you gotta go now
I guess you better go now
I'll get through it somehow
Even though it's dark out
Tomorrow's gonna be a better day

I'd be down on my knees
Beggin' you, baby, please
Just leave my keys by the door

Yeah I'll get through it somehow
Even though it's dark out
Tomorrow's gonna be a better day
Yeah tomorrow's bound to be a better day
(I don't know how long I will get through this)
