

Who Will Serve

Kristian Bush

Tell me boy when Jesus calls
Would you follow him back would you climb those walls
Tell me son when your Uncle Sam
Asks you to give him everything you can

Who will serve, Johnny who will serve
Who's gonna carry that load
Who's gonna walk that road
When your Lord comes or your country's gun
Needs a hand for the trigger
Is your life bigger than the one you got
Tell me who will serve

Ain't this the river that carries your sins
And the place where your only family lives
Who's gonna keep them safe in the dark
Who's gonna take that long long walk

Who will serve, Johnny who will serve
Who's gonna carry that load who's gonna walk that road
When your Lord comes
Or your country's gun
Needs a hand for the trigger is your life bigger
Than the one you got
Johnny heres your shot
Tell me who will serve

Who will serve, Johnny who will serve
Who's gonna carry that load who's gonna walk that road
When your Lord comes
Or your country's gun needs a hand for the trigger
Is your life bigger than the one you got
Tell me who will serve
Johnny heres your shot
Tell me who will serve
